Will be responsible for providing customers with excellent service and a great rental experience.

~ versus ~

Rewritten introduction:

So you're the one who's never met a stranger, right? People often tell you they immediately feel comfortable around you. Making others smile in the midst of an issue is something important to you. You're not looking for another job, but a career where you can use these skills every day while building additional skills to continue to move your career forward.

Then you're perfect for our position as the Counter Rental Agent at Mike Albert Rental - Eyendale. You'll be the primary customer contact for vehicle rental customers, so they will need to see your smile and positive attitude. You'll prepare contracts for checking vehicles in/out to customers and closing contracts for return of vehicles. Your knack for making people feel welcome and comfortable will be the key to providing customers with excellent service and a great rental experience.

Rennergized Job Posting: Recruiting Coordinator for urgent care facility

Original Introduction:

Provides support for Senior Recruiters; responsible for completion of the hiring and onboarding process

~ versus ~

Rewritten Introduction:

You've heard it before and most likely you've said it. Healthcare can be an overwhelming pain, especially when you need it most. But we're changing that experience for our patients and, as we grow, we need more incredible teammates to help.

This role might be for you if you are someone who is more at home behind the scenes with the internal team than front and center. You'll need to be someone who organizes with the passion of Marie Condo and has a bit of an obsession with keeping things on schedule. You're a person who likes to make sure people feel welcomed as an important part of the team, while you support our Senior Recruiters in walking each candidate through the hiring and onboarding process.

Job Posting: Carpenter for contracting company

Are you a carpenter who hates having someone always looking over your shoulder on the job? Perfect! We hate having to do that, so as long as you're dependable, have a strong eye for detail, a perfectionist with your work and you don't accept short-cuts, we're golden.

We're looking for a qualified Carpenter and, since you're here, we're guessing you're looking for us. You'll need to have good knowledge of the essentials: installing cabinets, doors, frameworks, floors, or other wooden fixtures and using woodworking machines, hand tools, and power tools. No workshops here. You'll work on-site at various residential and commercial projects, so a pleasant, professional demeanor is an absolute must.

On a Typical Day You Might:

- Read blueprints, drawings and sketches to fully grasp requirements
- Measure and takeoff
- Install roofing, flashing, siding, windows
- Install framing, insulation, drywall, paint, trim, flooring, fixtures, cabinets and shelves
- Inspect places and conduct repairs or maintenance
- Build scaffolding and other construction structures

Still with us? Great! But before you brush the sawdust off your resume, let's take a minute to go through the list below just to be sure you have each of these requirements:

Must-Haves:

- Proven experience as carpenter
- Excellent understanding of carpentry techniques and methods of installation and construction
- Hands-on experience in working with carpentry materials
- Ability to read technical documents and drawings
- Commitment to safety guidelines at all times

- Good knowledge of English, especially as it relates to carpentry and construction
 - Good physical condition and endurance
 - Dependable - Look, you've gotta be on time and consistent. Each project has a deadline. Every minute and every hand counts.
 - Pleasant, professional demeanor (we know we said this already but this one's important so clients can feel comfortable inviting us into their personal or professional space)
 - Ready to be part of a strong team
 - You must have your own source of transportation - preferably a truck - and tools to be considered for this position (specialty tools will be provided)
